

Anti-Facilitation of Tax Evasion Statement

Cecure Intelligence Limited maintains a zero-tolerance approach to tax evasion and the facilitation of tax evasion.

The company is committed to conducting its business with integrity, transparency, and in full compliance with all applicable tax laws and regulations in the jurisdictions in which it operates. Cecure Intelligence Limited prohibits employees, contractors, partners, and any associated persons acting on its behalf from engaging in, or assisting others in, any form of tax evasion.

In accordance with the UK Criminal Finances Act 2017, Cecure Intelligence Limited has implemented reasonable and proportionate procedures designed to prevent the facilitation of tax evasion. These procedures form part of the company's broader governance and compliance framework and include:

- Risk-based assessment of exposure to tax evasion facilitation risks
- Clear policies and standards of ethical business conduct
- Appropriate oversight and accountability by senior management
- Due diligence on employees, contractors, suppliers, and partners
- Staff awareness and training on ethical and legal obligations
- Mechanisms for reporting and investigating suspected misconduct

All employees and associated persons are required to uphold these standards and to report any concerns regarding suspected or facilitated tax evasion.

Any breach of this policy will be treated as a serious matter and may result in disciplinary action, termination of employment or contractual relationships, and, where appropriate, referral to relevant authorities.

Cecure Intelligence Limited remains committed to maintaining the highest standards of ethical conduct, financial transparency, and regulatory compliance in all its operations.
